

We at Bank of America believe the arts have a unique capability to connect individuals and create opportunities for cultural understanding. We support a wide range of organizations, from local, community-based arts education programs to the most well-known museums in the world.

Bank of America is pleased to be the National Sponsor of Power and Pathos: Bronze Sculpture of the Hellenistic World in Los Angeles and Washington, DC. We look forward to working once again with two leading art institutions: The J. Paul Getty Museum and the National Gallery of Art. This book and exhibition highlight more than fifty renowned large-scale, innovative, realistic sculptures of great physical power and emotional intensity from the Hellenistic period.

We hope you enjoy Power and Pathos: Bronze Sculpture of the Hellenistic World and are able to share it with your family and friends.
